Colds Cause Pneumonia

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. G. Grude E. Fenner, Marin, Ind., who writes: "I was taken by the time of my first Cough Cure. She says: 'To coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 145 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies, but in no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of the wonderful remedy cured me entirely of my cold, and I feel as well as ever, and restored me to my normal weight and health strength.' Sold by E. W. Hines. 1m

General Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council will be held tomorrow night at the City Hall. Among other important matters to come before the body, is that of selecting a Clerk to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. A. C. Wells. Citizens who are interested in the welfare of the city and its government, should make an effort to attend these meetings.

Popular and Beautiful Young Woman Dead.

As the result of a surgical operation, Mrs. M. S. Cohen died Saturday at the McMurtry Hospital in Louisville. Although messages came, bearing the news of her very dangerous condition, friends and loved ones hoped against hope, and the shock was great when her bitter world came announcing her death. The remains arrived in this city Sunday at one o'clock and were taken to the residence of her father, Sheriff John F. Wagner.

Deceased was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wagner and would have been 25 years old this coming July. When quite young she became the wife of Mr. Mat S. Cohen, of Woodford county, and from this union there resulted one little daughter, who is now about eight years old. This is the first break in a devoted family and the grief of the bereaved ones is well nigh unbearable. Funeral services were conducted Monday at the residence of her father, Sheriff John F. Wagner, and were attended by Rev. Hugh McCallan, in the presence of a great gathering of friends and relatives. The procession that followed the remains to the cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in this city and the funeral offerings were beautiful and numerous, which further attested to the popularity of the deceased. Mrs. Cohen was of a bright, witty disposition and was the sunshine of her home. She was gifted with an unusually large amount of sympathy, and to the heart-broken husband, whose grief was too deep for words, she was a comfort and a joy to live with. We can only trust that the great Comforter of all, who alone can heal the wounded hearts.

Shooting at Irvine.

The following report from Irvine appeared in Saturday's Courier-Journal: "S. K. Menzies, a saloon keeper, and son of ex-Judge James W. Menzies, of this county, became engaged in a dispute with Joe Richardson, colored, shooting him through the arm and also through the stomach. The last bullet coming out near the spinal column. Menzies then turned the pistol on himself, hitting the ball entering below the heart and passing out of his back near the hip bone. The wounds of both men are dangerous, but not necessarily fatal."
